Our students come from an impoverished area in the capital city of Kampala. While there are many secondary schools located in the city, we believe that a boarding school outside the teeming metropolis provides a more conducive environment for academic success and personal discipline. Girls and boys in their teens are susceptible to economic, social, and sexual exploitation. These temptations abound in an urban environment. Our students attend a boarding secondary school located in a rural area about forty-five minutes from Kampala, far from its smog and urban blight.

In addition to being able to concentrate on their studies without pressure to do household chores, students can also partake of a variety of extracurricular activities, including sports, music, dance, drama, and clubs. The school attracts learners from other parts of Uganda, and this diverse culture socializes the children to overcome traditional regional and tribal biases. One day each academic term is set aside for a special parents visitation day. It's an opportunity to meet with our students as a group, provide snacks, offer advice, and review individual academic performance.

The St. Nicholas Uganda Children's Fund supports 170 orphans and vulnerable children in primary & secondary school, vocational & professional training, and university. We pay school fees and provide uniforms, shoes & socks, school supplies, meals, and health care. With your help, we can make a real difference in their young lives.

Student of the Month

Rose is twelve years old and is in sixth grade at Alund'Entono Primary School. She has an older brother and a younger sister; both are excellent students. Five years ago, their father went to another district looking for work and has never returned. The children had been out of school for a year before joining our program. On her recent report card, Rose was the top student in her class of 65 and our best performing student in primary school with an average grade of 94%.
